Burton W. Marsh Distinguished Service Award

Please note: There is no submission process for the Burton W. Marsh Distinguished Service Award. Nominations are made by the members of the award panel.

The Burton W. Marsh Distinguished Service Award may be awarded annually to an eligible member of the Institute for distinguished service to the Institute. The purpose of the award is to recognize an individual who, in the judgment of a committee of judges, has contributed to the advancement of the Institute of Transportation Engineers over a period of years in an outstanding fashion.

ELIGIBILITY:

- To be an eligible recipient for the award, a candidate must be a Institute member who has rendered outstanding service to the Institute and thus to the profession of transportation engineering.
- The service must have been broad in scope and extended over a period of several years.
- Officers and Directors of the Institute are not eligible while on the International Board of Direction.

SELECTION PROCESS:

- The selection shall be made by a committee of three judges.
- Annually the President of the Institute, with the advice and consent of the International Board, shall appoint one member to serve for a three year term.
- Judges shall not serve more than two terms.
- In the event that a judge is unable to complete the three-year term, the President shall appoint a member to serve for the unexpired term.
- The judges will review the Institute membership for candidates and also may consider suggestions from members for possible recipients.
- Only one recipient shall be named during the year and an award need not be presented every year. Posthumous awards may be made.

AWARD:

- Recognition at the ITE Annual Meeting
- Inscribed plaque
