INSTITUTE OF TRANSPORTATION ENGINEERS NORTH CENTRAL SECTION WINS NEWSLETTER AWARD

AUGUST 20, 2008, WASHINGTON, DC—The Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) North Central Section received the ITE Newsletter Award for circulation between 250 and 500 for its publication Inciter at the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) 2008 Annual Meeting and Exhibit, being held August 17–20, 2008 Anaheim, CA, USA. Peter Langworthy edited the newsletter.

ITE annually recognizes outstanding newsletters in three different categories: circulation greater than 500, circulation from 250 to 500 and circulation less than 250. For a complete listing of all of ITE's 2008 award winners, visit the ITE Web site at www.ite.org.

The Institute of Transportation Engineers is an international educational and scientific association of transportation professionals who are responsible for meeting mobility and safety needs. Through its products and services, ITE promotes professional development of its members, supports and encourages education, stimulates research, develops public awareness programs and serves as a conduit for the exchange of professional education.

Founded in 1930, ITE serves as your source for expertise, knowledge and ideas through meetings, seminars and publications, and through its network of more than 17,000 members working in more than 92 countries.
