FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY WINS STUDENT CHAPTER AWARD FROM THE INSTITUTE OF TRANSPORTATION ENGINEERS

AUGUST 5, 2007, WASHINGTON, DC—Florida International University was recognized as the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) 2008 Student Chapter Award recipient at the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) 2008 Annual Meeting and Exhibit, being held August 17–20, 2008 Anaheim, CA, USA.

Florida International University's student chapter was recognized for its outstanding chapter organization, activities and efforts to foster the close association of students with practicing professionals.

The purpose of the Student Chapter Award is to encourage student chapters to achieve the objectives set forth in their charter and to provide a means for ITE to recognize outstanding accomplishments in such activities.

For a complete listing of all of ITE's 2008 award winners, visit the ITE Web site at www.ite.org.

The Institute of Transportation Engineers is an international educational and scientific association of transportation professionals who are responsible for meeting mobility and safety needs. Through its products and services, ITE promotes professional development of its members, supports and encourages education, stimulates research, develops public awareness programs and serves as a conduit for the exchange of professional education.

Founded in 1930, ITE serves as your source for expertise, knowledge and ideas through meetings, seminars and publications, and through its network of more than 17,000 members working in more than 92 countries.
