New Programs

ITE currently has ten hour-long professional development programs, funded through the ITE Professional Development Fund:

- Engineering Intersections to Reduce Red-Light Running
- Managing High Technology Projects in Transportation
- MUTCD 2000 and 2003 Revisions
- Traffic Signal Change Intervals
- Introduction to Systems Engineering
- Fundamentals of Road Weather Management
- Intervalos de despeje de transito
- Trip Generation: Fundamentals and Applications
- Trip Generation: Advanced Concepts and Applications
- Ingenieria en intersecciones para reducir la incidencia de pasarse la luz roja

Each program includes a Microsoft PowerPoint slide set, instructor notes and a student reference manual.

The CD-ROMs are available for a nominal cost of $75/member, $100/nonmember.

The Professional Development Program Fund, managed by the ITE Educational Foundation, is dedicated to funding the development and implementation of professional development courses and materials for transportation professionals. The ITE Educational Foundation is recognized under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Donations to the Foundation are generally tax deductible for U.S. income tax purposes.
