Pete Buttigieg Confirmed as Transportation Secretary

WASHINGTON, DC — The Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) congratulates Pete Buttigieg on his confirmation as the 19th U.S. Transportation Secretary. ITE looks forward to working with Secretary Buttigieg and his team at the U.S. Department of Transportation (USDOT) to advance Vision Zero, rebuild our nation's infrastructure, address climate change, and create transportation choices.

"Secretary Buttigieg brings with him an understanding of the important role that transportation plays in our economy and how it affects individual businesses, the character of communities, and the well-being of our nation," said Jeffrey F. Paniati, ITE Executive Director and CEO. "ITE looks forward to continuing our work with USDOT to help serve all users of the transportation system in an equitable way."

About ITE — Founded in 1930, ITE is a community of transportation professionals including transportation engineers, transportation planners, consultants, educators, technologists, and researchers. Through meetings, seminars, publications, and a network of more than 16,000 members working in 78 countries, ITE connects members to a world of ideas, people, and resources.
