Plenary Speakers Announced!

Opening Plenary: Transportation Leadership for Safer, Stronger, and More Connected Communities

The Opening Plenary on Tuesday, March 17, features Roger Millar, a nationally respected public leader and champion for safe, sustainable, and people-centered transportation.

Drawing on his experience leading both large and small public agencies, including his tenure as Secretary of Transportation at the Washington State DOT, and on his current role as Director of the AmericaFWD Project Delivery Accelerator Lab, Roger will share insights on advancing innovation, accelerating project delivery, and strengthening the connection between transportation, communities, and public trust.

This plenary will set the tone for the conference by highlighting the essential role transportation professionals play in shaping vibrant, resilient, and connected communities.

Closing Plenary: Leadership, Collaboration, and Advancing Transportation Safety

Sarah Wells, Executive Director of the Transportation Association of Canada (TAC), will share an international perspective on how leadership, innovation, and collaboration are shaping safer transportation systems across Canada during the Closing Plenary on March 18.

Drawing on TAC's work, the session will highlight innovative programs, technical initiatives, and unique projects that are advancing transportation safety and professional practice nationwide.

Sarah will also explore opportunities to strengthen collaboration and knowledge sharing between U.S. and Canadian transportation professionals, emphasizing the value of cross-border partnerships in accelerating progress toward safer, more resilient, and more people-centered transportation systems.

The session will close the conference by reinforcing the importance of shared learning, leadership, and collective action in addressing today's most pressing transportation safety challenges.
