The ONE ITE Sub Task Force met in Denver, CO, USA over the weekend in a work session to advance the International Board of Direction's (IBOD) decision to create a new district in the West. Through an 8-inch snowfall, more than 20 ITE elected, legacy and active leaders from the eight mountain states sections and chapters (Arizona, Colorado-Wyoming, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Southern Arizona, and Utah) met to advance the vision of a new district and the diversity of issues raised by members. Key topics included membership experience, leadership, student/young member needs, communication, meetings, governance and finance. The Sub Task Force will be advancing a transition plan to the IBOD at its May meeting in New Haven, CT, USA, during the Northeastern District Annual Meeting. More information will be highlighted here in Spotlight as the transition plan progresses. Please feel free to share ideas, thoughts, and comments with the Sub Task Force Chair, Randy McCourt at rsm@dksassociates.com.
