

2020 Application

Important: All applicants must meet the prerequisites and fully complete the required information for consideration for the 2020 *Leadership*ITE Program. Applications should be submitted to leadership@ite.org by midnight September 16, 2019 Pacific Time.

Prerequisites

1. The applicant must be an active ITE Student, Member or Fellow in good standing with ITE and able to demonstrate contributions to ITE through volunteer activities. If you are not a member of ITE and this program is of interest to you, please visit www.ite.org to learn more about ITE and consider joining.
2. The applicant must acquire a nomination letter and two letters of support—one must be from the employer as described below.

Typical Characteristics

*Leadership*ITE candidates must be active ITE Student, Member or Fellows in good standing. They should have demonstrated a capacity for leadership, be strongly concerned about the future of transportation planning and engineering, and be willing to be a steward of the profession regardless of the stage in their careers. Successful candidates should have the desire to serve ITE as elected leaders and volunteers—contributing to the success of the profession. Although not a mandatory prerequisite, candidates should have demonstrated dedication to this effort by having held an officer or committee chair position at any level within ITE (i.e., student chapter, Chapter, Section, District or International), through contributions to ITE Technical Conferences or Annual Meetings as a presenter, or through written contributions to ITE Journal or other ITE publications as an author or co-author.

Diversity and Inclusion

In principle and in practice, ITE values and seeks diverse and inclusive participation within the field of transportation. ITE promotes involvement and expanded access to leadership opportunities regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, religion, age, sexual orientation, nationality, disability, appearance, geographic location, or professional level.

Application Submittal Instructions

Submit completed applications with all attachments by midnight September 16, 2019 to leadership@ite.org. Receipt of your application will be confirmed. Thank you for your initiative and desire to participate in this vital program.

2. Attach two, one-page support letters—one of which must be signed and dated from your current employer expressing support of your participation and indicating an understanding of the effort and time commitment necessary to participate.

The second one-page letter should be signed and dated and come from a person of your choice who is not your employer. This letter should express support of your participation and indicate reasons why you would be an ideal candidate for *Leadership*ITE.

3. Attach a professional resume including your post high school education degree(s). This should be a two-page maximum.

TUITION

Tuition for this one-year program is $3,000. It includes three, face-to-face workshops (some meals during workshops), course materials, webinars, and registration to ITE’s Annual Meeting and Exhibit held during the program year. Where possible, it may also include registration to a District or Section event if combined with a *Leadership*ITE program. The registration does not include hotel and travel and some meals. Tuition payments are due November 15, 2019.

Select one of the following:

- My employer is prepared to pay the tuition if I am accepted.
- My District/Section is prepared to pay the tuition if I am accepted.
- I will assume responsibility for the tuition if accepted.
- My tuition will be covered by some combination of the above.

Note: If known at the time of application, please indicate contribution from any District, Section or Chapter that will be made toward your application—whether to you directly or to ITE:

Name of District/Section/Chapter	Amount Contributed toward tuition

- I will need to secure partial financial assistance. Note: Checking this option in no way influences the consideration for your participation in this program. (Please consider applying for the Fred Gorove Scholarship.)

(Optional) Indicate any reason why you may need to secure financial assistance. _____

PERSONAL COMMITMENT

Candidates for *Leadership*ITE must be strongly concerned about the future of the transportation planning and engineering profession and be willing to spend volunteer time and effort throughout their years as stewards of the profession.

In order to accomplish the objectives of *Leadership*ITE, selected applicants must commit to fully participating in all of the program’s sessions, webinars and workshops. Participants may not miss any of the face-to-face sessions or they may be asked to withdraw from the program and forfeit any previously paid or remaining tuition. If there are extenuating circumstances, the individual must contact the chair of *Leadership*ITE
